DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-8, 15-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Claim(s) s 1, 5, 15 fail(s) to recite sufficient structural elements and interconnection of the elements to positively position and define how the at least one connection allows the first structure and work station to be spaced apart along a rotational arc so that an integral structure able to function as claimed is recited.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

Claims 9-14, 25-35, 45-48 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Vander Park. The patent to Vander Park teaches structure substantially as claimed, as discussed above including communications between two structures and connectable between multiple structures the only difference being the specific communications between the structures not being particularly a data means. However, the use of different alternative conventional communications between different structures are matters of desirability and choice depending upon the parameters needed and would have been and well within the level of ordinary skill in the art, thereby providing structure as claimed. The method would have been obvious in view of the structures.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 12/04/06 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-8, 15-24 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).
